

"We Have No Rights"

Arbitrary imprisonment and cruel treatment of migrants with mental health issues in Canada

"No Life for a Child"

A Roadmap to End Immigration Detention of Children and Family Separation

'Unsafe' and on the Margins

Canada's Response to Mexico's Mistreatment of Sexual Minorities and People Living with HIV

IHRP UPDATE & ALUMNI MIXER

Join us at Torys LLP, 79 Wellington St. W.
on October 6 at 6pm

Sheila Block, Hanna Gros and Maia Rotman will discuss the IHRP's ongoing research and advocacy in the area of immigration law. Join us for some excellent discussion, food and drinks.

Please RSVP here

Sheila Block is a senior trial and appellate counsel with a broad civil litigation practice, including corporate/commercial and securities litigation, intellectual property, defamation and administrative law cases. Sheila has appeared as counsel at all levels of court in Canada and before international arbitrations and other tribunals. Sheila is the chair of Torys' Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice and a former chair of Torys' Executive Committee.

Hanna Gros, a graduate of the program, is currently working with the IHRP as a Senior Fellow. She has also co-authored two reports relating to human rights violations within the Canadian immigration detention system.

Maia Rotman is a third-year student at the University of Toronto's Faculty of Law and has been actively involved with the work of the IHRP both as a clinic student and a summer fellow. She co-authored the report "'Unsafe' and on the Margins: Canada's Response to Mexico's Mistreatment of Sexual Minorities and People Living with HIV."

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF LAW

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAM