

2020 PROFILE

SASLAW is a relevant and dynamic association which promotes the discipline of Labour Law in South Africa.

Advancing and promoting labour law as a legal and academic discipline

Advancing and promoting the practice of labour law

Promoting ethical standards and integrity in the practice of labour law

Promoting interaction between people engaged in the fields of labour law and dispute resolution

SASLAW is a Non-profit Organisation (Registration Number: 047-618-NPO)

KWAZULU-NATAL
kzn@saslaw.org.za

WESTERN CAPE
westerncape@saslaw.org.za

LIMPOPO
limpopo@saslaw.org.za

FREE STATE
freestate@saslaw.org.za

EASTERN CAPE
easterncape@saslaw.org.za

GAUTENG
gauteng@saslaw.org.za

www.saslaw.org.za

WHO WE ARE

THE SA SOCIETY FOR LABOUR LAW IS A MEMBERSHIP ASSOCIATION FOR THOSE INVOLVED IN ALL ASPECTS OF LABOUR LAW IN SOUTH AFRICA.

The aim of the Society is to promote the advancement of labour law as a legal and academic discipline, and encourage collaboration between lawyers and other experts within the field of labour law.

SASLAW has over 1500 members. Membership is made up of Judges, advocates, attorneys, candidate attorneys, HR and IR management, government officials, CCMA commissioners, trade unions, bargaining councils and employers' organisations. SASLAW has chapters in Gauteng, KwaZulu Natal, Western Cape, Eastern Cape, Free State and Limpopo.

SASLAW's focus is on 4 main areas:

- Membership – many benefits and a separate Young Scholar Society.
- Seminars and events – Around 40 seminars and workshops are arranged throughout the year on many topical issues, which suit the wide range of members.
- Annual Conference. The 23rd Conference will be at The Focus Rooms, Linbro Park, Johannesburg in September 2020. The profits from the conference go to running the Pro Bono project.
- The Pro Bono project at the 4 Labour Courts.

SASLAW
PRO BONO NPC

www.saslawprobono.co.za

The SASLAW Pro Bono NPC project at the South African Labour Courts serves to deliver a quality advisory service and defined Labour Law legal services to those who otherwise do not have access to justice. SASLAW Pro Bono NPC is a non-profit company and administers the Pro Bono project in the four Labour Courts in Johannesburg, Durban, Cape Town and Port Elizabeth. The project assists the Labour Court with giving South Africans who cannot afford legal assistance, the right to have access to justice, and to receive advice on their labour matters from professional and qualified attorneys in a dignified and respectful manner. Over 18500 clients have been assisted since the inception of the project in 2011.

1518

Members

54

Committee
Members

47

Events

2857

Event
Attendees

306

Attorneys involved
in the pro bono
project nationally

2147

Matters taken on by attorneys since pro bono project inception

465

Annual Conference
Attendees

16450

Hours spent by attorneys in the offices

SASLAW MEMBERSHIP PROFILE

2020

TOTAL: 1518

SOCIAL MEDIA STATISTICS

Number of Facebook followers	1088
Number of Instagram followers	308
Number of LinkedIn followers	1300
Number of Twitter followers	284
Highest number of views to an invitation on Facebook	53
Number of views to the 2019 conference photos	1209
Facebook reach per month	1150

*As of January 2020

AFRICAN LABOUR LAW SOCIETY

The African Labour Society is an association for those with an interest in Labour and Employment law on the African continent. The intention of the Society is to improve knowledge of Labour law within the continent, to promote the sharing of knowledge amongst members, and to encourage participants to learn from other jurisdictions.

The aim of the ALLS is to host quality and affordable congresses and workshops and to create networking platforms for the members to engage with each other.

The 3rd ALLS conference will be held on the 26th and 27th of March 2020 at the Grand Palm Convention Centre in Gaborone.

www.africanlabourlawsociety.org

SASLAW YOUNG SCHOLARS SOCIETY

SASLAW's Young Scholars Society (YSS) is a membership association for those involved in all aspects of labour law in South Africa. YSS welcomes members under the age of 35 to be part of this young and vibrant community. Events and forums have been created especially for this category of membership. SASLAW is a relevant and dynamic association which promotes the development of Labour Law in South Africa.

The members of the YSS would join SALAW and pay the relevant membership fee to belong to the society.

The 2018/2019 SASLAW membership fees are:

- R200 excl Vat – Full time student in an academic institution
- R800 excl Vat – Candidate Attorney

SASLAW CONFERENCE 2020

THE LABOUR LAW CONFERENCE FOR LABOUR LAW SPECIALISTS.

Annually, professionals with a passion for Labour Law meet at the SASLAW Conference to discuss case law, topical issues, and to learn and benefit from valuable networking opportunities.

The 23rd SASLAW Conference will be held on the 3rd and 4th September at the Focus Rooms in Linbro Park, Johannesburg.

REGISTRATION FEES:

Early Bird: R4200 excl VAT – valid until 31 May 2020 (SASLAW members)

Standard: R4500 excl VAT

Non-member: R5200 excl VAT

For more information and the programme visit conference.saslaw.org.za